SPEAKER: BRENT CRYSTAL

Being alone through broken relationships with family and friends, Brent tried to achieve personal success however he could by stealing, lying, cheating, etc. Sinking into despair and anger led him deep into the pit of addiction of all kinds.

How can someone like that be rescued and become a pillar of the community? Brent just celebrated his 15th year at Turbocam where he has held positions as Customer Service Account Manager, Value Stream Manager, and Business Analysis. His role currently is transitioning to ERP Data Base Administrator where he is involved in maintaining and developing the core software used for business and financial decision making.

Married to Naomi for 15 years and living in Dover, they have been blessed with 4 children; Anna 9, Eli 7, Jacob 5 and Emma 2. Naomi is home schooling the children and looking to teach part time at the college level.

Brent says, "Our 3 oldest children and I are participating in Martial Training 2 days a week at Seacoast Warriors where we enjoy learning values like respect and discipline while also challenging ourselves physically."

God never comes to 2 people or 2 places in exactly the same way. God is an amazing God!

They will hear of the power of God at work today.
